

Tax Forms

All beneficiaries of US royalties must fill out a US tax form in order to avoid withholding tax being deducted from payments that they receive. The below is a brief guide to help you select the correct form and complete it. For further assistance please consult IRS guidelines, links to which are provided below, and or your tax advisor.

For U.S. based Authors and Agencies

U.S. based authors and agencies should fill out the W-9 tax form. To complete this form the only information you need to include is your Social Security Number or Employer Identification Number, Name, and Address. You also need to check the correct box for your federal tax classification and sign and date the form.

For more detailed instructions on completing the W-9 form please follow the link below:

<https://www.irs.gov/pub/irs-pdf/fw9.pdf>

For Foreign Authors acting as Individuals

Foreign authors receiving their royalties as individuals rather than as a company should complete the W-8BEN form. To complete this form you need to include your Name, Address, Date of Birth, Country of Residence, and Foreign Tax Identifying Number or US Tax Identifying Number should you have one. This number is whatever number you use in your own country for tax purposes. For example in the UK this would be your National Insurance Number or in Australia it would be your Tax File Number. If your country of residence does not require you to obtain such a Tax Identifying Number then please fill Line 6 out with “not legally required” along with any further explanation; this can be written in the margins of the form. Please also sign and date this form.

Please find below examples of how to fill out Part 2 of the W8-BEN for Australia, Canada & the United Kingdom. These examples should work for most authors, however if for some reason you believe these examples do not work for you or you are resident of a country other than the three examples given below please contact usroyalties@bloomsbury.com for further assistance.

	7 List account number(s) here (optional)

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. See also What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and

I am not subject to backup withholding because (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and, generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

What's New

Line 3a has been modified to clarify how a disregarded entity completes this line. An LLC that is a disregarded entity should check the appropriate box for the tax classification of its owner. Otherwise, it should check the "LLC" box and enter its appropriate tax classification.

New line 3b has been added to this form. A flow-through entity is required to complete this line to indicate that it has direct or indirect foreign partners, owners, or beneficiaries when it provides the Form W-9 to another flow-through entity in which it has an ownership interest. This change is intended to provide a flow-through entity with information regarding the status of its indirect foreign partners, owners, or beneficiaries, so that it can satisfy any applicable reporting requirements. For example, a partnership that has any indirect foreign partners may be required to complete Schedules K-2 and K-3. See the Partnership Instructions for Schedules K-2 and K-3 (Form 1065).

Purpose of Form
